Advanced Research & Appraisal Residential Appraisal Report

port File No. 22072602

Scope of Work, Assumptions and Limiting Conditions

Scope of work is defined in the Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice as " the type and extent of research and analyses in an assignment." In short, scope of work is simply what the appraiser did and did not do during the course of the assignment. It includes, but is not limited to: the extent to which the property is identified and inspected, the type and extent of data researched, the type and extent of analyses applied to arrive at opinions or conclusions.

The scope of this appraisal and ensuing discussion in this report are specific to the needs of the client, other identified intended users and to the intended use of the report. This report was prepared for the sole and exclusive use of the client and other identified intended users for the identified intended use and its use by any other parties is prohibited. The appraiser is not responsible for unauthorized use of the report.

The appraiser's certification appearing in this appraisal report is subject to the following conditions and to such other specific conditions as are set forth by the appraiser in the report. All extraordinary assumptions and hypothetical conditions are stated in the report and might have affected the assignment results.

- 1. The appraiser assumes no responsibility for matters of a legal nature affecting the property appraised or title thereto, nor does the appraiser render any opinion as to the title, which is assumed to be good and marketable. The property is appraised as though under responsible ownership.
- 2. Any sketch in this report may show approximate dimensions and is included only to assist the reader in visualizing the property. The appraiser has made no survey of the property.
- 3. The appraiser is not required to give testimony or appear in court because of having made the appraisal with reference to the property in question, unless arrangements have been previously made thereto.
- 4. Neither all, nor any part of the content of this report, copy or other media thereof (including conclusions as to the property value, the identity of the appraiser, professional designations, or the firm with which the appraiser is connected), shall be used for any purposes by anyone but the client and other intended users as identified in this report, nor shall it be conveyed by anyone to the public through advertising, public relations, news, sales, or other media, without the written consent of the appraiser.
- 5. The appraiser will not disclose the contents of this appraisal report unless required by applicable law or as specified in the Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice.
- 6. Information, estimates, and opinions furnished to the appraiser, and contained in the report, were obtained from sources considered reliable and believed to be true and correct. However, no responsibility for accuracy of such items furnished to the appraiser is assumed by the appraiser.
- 7. The appraiser assumes that there are no hidden or unapparent conditions of the property, subsoil, or structures, which would render it more or less valuable. The appraiser assumes no responsibility for such conditions, or for engineering or testing, which might be required to discover such factors. This appraisal is not an environmental assessment of the property and should not be considered as such.
- 8. The appraiser specializes in the valuation of real property and is not a home inspector, building contractor, structural engineer, or similar "expert", unless otherwise noted. The appraiser did not conduct the intensive type of field observations of the kind intended to seek and discover property defects. The viewing of the property and any improvements is for purposes of developing an opinion of the defined value of the property, given the intended use of this assignment. Statements regarding condition are based on surface observations only. The appraiser claims no special expertise regarding issues including, but not limited to: foundation settlement, basement moisture problems, wood destroying (or other) insects, pest infestation, radon gas, lead based paint, mold or environmental issues. Unless otherwise indicated, mechanical systems were not activated or tested.

This appraisal report should not be used to disclose the condition of the property as it relates to the presence/absence of defects. The client is invited and encouraged to employ qualified experts to inspect and address areas of concern. If negative conditions are discovered, the opinion of value may be affected.

Unless otherwise noted, the appraiser assumes the components that constitute the subject property improvement(s) are fundamentally sound and in working order.

Any viewing of the property by the appraiser was limited to readily observable areas. Unless otherwise noted, attics and crawl space areas were not accessed. The appraiser did not move furniture, floor coverings or other items that may restrict the viewing of the property.

- 9. Appraisals involving hypothetical conditions related to completion of new construction, repairs or alteration are based on the assumption that such completion, alteration or repairs will be competently performed.
- 10. Unless the intended use of this appraisal specifically includes issues of property insurance coverage, this appraisal should not be used for such purposes. Reproduction or Replacement cost figures used in the cost approach are for valuation purposes only, given the intended use of the assignment. The Definition of Value used in this assignment is unlikely to be consistent with the definition of Insurable Value for property insurance coverage/use.
- 11. The ACI General Purpose Appraisal Report (GPAR™) is not intended for use in transactions that require a Fannie Mae 1004/Freddie Mac 70 form, also known as the Uniform Residential Appraisal Report (URAR).

Comments on Sales Comparison

Six closed sales, one active listing and one recently expired listing were included in the appraisal analysis.

Sale 1 is the most recent sale on Star Island that is a smaller estate home with a smaller site and less water front; home is older and in inferior condition. High individual, net and gross adjustments are due to the smaller site with inferior water front.

Sale 2 is a recent sale on Star Island of a slightly older estate home that is similar in size and situated on a larger site with less water front. This property is superior in quality and condition and was sold fully furnished turnkey including personal property.

Sale 3 is a slightly more dated sale of an estate home that is similar in size and quality; property is older and inferior in condition and is situated on a similar site with similar water front. High individual and gross adjustments to sale 3 are due to the time of sale and age difference.

Sale 4 is a dated sale on Star Island that is similar in size and age; situated on a smaller site with less water front. Sale has high individual, net and gross adjustments due to time of sale and smaller site with less water front.

Sale 5 is a dated sale situated next to the subject and is older, smaller and inferior in condition with similar site size and slightly less water frontage. The high individual and net adjustments are due to the time of sale, age and GLA size differences.

Sale 6 is a recent sale from a greater than desired distance on Bal Harbour Island a gated secured community of water front estate homes that is smaller and has slightly smaller site with less water front. This sale is located at a greater distance and is included as it offers many amenities that are similar to Star Island and is equally desirable.

Listing 7 is located on a secured island and is a larger newer home on smaller site with less water front. This sale is included due to the lack of active offerings on Star Island.

Listing 8 is an expired listing on Star Island that was listed for sale as improved and as a vacant site. Property is situated on a smaller site with less water front. This expired listing is included as it was active on the effective date of the appraisal and has since expired. This property was originally listed 06/13/2021 priced $34,000; relisted 08/19/2021 priced $33,900,000; listing expired 08/07/2022.

Most reliance is placed on Sale 3 as it has the most similar site size and 4 being the most similar in size and age. Sale 2 is a recent sale that was sold with personal property and sales 1, 5 are smaller homes and sale 6 is smaller and more distant. Sales 1, 2 and 5 are given secondary reliance and considered supportive indicators. Sale 6 is included due to being a recent sale and considered a supportive indicator. Market Analysis Comments

The number of sales considered to be "comparable" to the subject that are located within the subject's market area may be too small to be statistically significant and no reliable trends may be identified from limited data. To profess to identify trends based on small data pool can lead to misleading interpretation, analysis and conclusions a violation of the Conduct Section of the Ethics Rule of USPAP. At times the defined area has to be expanded to provide an adequate number of area sales and may exceed the defined neighborhood area boundaries. Based on Fannie Mae's FAQ's when there is limited data that is statistically meaningful no weight should be attributed to the Overall Trend boxes checked on the 1004MC or to the conclusion of the market trends reported on page 1 of the URAR. Additionally, the number of "comparable sales and listings" reported on page 2 of the URAR may not always be the same as the numbers reported on the 1004MC and is most likely due to the different criteria used in generating the statistical reports. The reported number of competing listings reported on page 2 may not always equal the total number of listings reported on the 1004MC as this data also includes sales that have closed, expired, were cancelled, etc., while the number of listings reported on page 2 of the URAR includes only properties that are "comparable" and available as of the effective date of the appraisal.

Local area values experienced a decline in towards the end of 2006 and early 2007; the decline continued thru 2010. Between 2011 thru the current date market conditions stabilized and various periods of stability with some small increased were observed; currently market conditions appear stable and are projected to remain stable. Currently there is a 10.4+-month's supply of housing inventory. Sellers are receiving approximately 97% of list price as of the most recent quarterly data. Seller concessions although not prevalent or needed in this market. Sales of these type properties are usually all cash transactions and current increase in interest rates will not have an affect on the high end market.

The World Health Organization declared the Novel Coronavirus (COVID-19) a global pandemic March 11, 2020. The influence COVID-19 has, and will have, on capital markets, real estate in general, and the asset / subject property being analyzed is currently unknown and will largely depend on the scale and duration of the outbreak. Under these current conditions, it is particularly difficult to quantify and assess the influence on market value(s). Importantly, the appraisal is based on the information available as of the current effective date of valuation. Changes in the physical status of the subject property, income and expenses, investment criteria, availability of financing, and overall market conditions may change rapidly and materially for the foreseeable future, and perhaps much longer.

* The uncertainties around the effects of the COVID-19 pandemic on Real Estate created very dynamic and changeable market conditions that may vary between markets. Market uncertainty may well have an effect on property values and property use, utility, occupancy, marketability, income-producing capacity and marketing times going forward. The client may consider having the property re-appraised once market conditions have stabilized and the current levels of uncertainty have abated.

Federal Housing Finance Agency reports area values increased 22% between the first quarter of 2021 and the first quarter of 2022. With the recent interest rate increase the market appears to stabilize after May 2022.
